ELIXIR GODINEAU

THE WORLD'S GREATEST TONIC.

Sensational Review by the Press in France.

LE TEMPS.

The ELIXIR GODINEAU is now constantly talked of by the press, it is the constant subject of their articles and the talk of town and country: it is a first class strengthening and restoring tonic of miraculous power.

L'AUTORITE.

The marvellous properties of the ELIXIR GODINEAU having been duly proved by various experiments, this powerful specific is now universally recommended as the best remedy against anaemia, tuberculosis and all cases of exhaustion of the organic system in general.

LE FIGARO.

To make gold, and find out the secret of ever-lasting youth; such were the two problems which alchemists had tried to solve. The progress of science has shown the uselessness of the first, but it facilitated, on the other hand, the working out of the second.

Following out the eminent professor's theories a Paris chemist of high standing with the assistance of eminent practitioners, has prepared the Elixir bearing his name the ELIXIR GODINEAU the effects of which are surprising.

LE MOT D'ORDRE.

Several truly marvellous cures effected by the ELIXIR GODINEAU and which have been echoed far and wide, have given this specific universal popularity. Hence forth anaemia, rachitis, paralysis, senile degeneration will cease to exist. The ELIXIR GODINEAU rapidly, suppresses all those affections produced by partial or general exhaustion of the organic system.

L'EVENEMENT.

The fairy tale of the fountain of youth is now a true and real fact; old age still scatters a few wrinkles on the face, a few snowy flakes in the hair, but it can no longer chill the hearts of men to whom the high-mettled spiritness of a youth of twenty years of age, is restored by the ELIXIR GODINEAU, one of the valuable conquests of modern science.

L'ECHO DE PARIS.

The great success of the ELIXIR GODINEAU increases from day to-day, and is fully justified. This powerful specific restores health and vigor every day to numberless invalids whose cure was despaired of. All weakened or debilitated organic systems are speedily strengthened after treatment with the ELIXIR GODINEAU, the effect of which is as sure as it is rapid.

CRICKET IN ENGLAND.

NOTTS vs AUSTRALIANS.

LATTER'S REMARKABLE BATTING AND FIELDING.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 27.

Eight thousand spectators had assembled at Nottingham for the second day's play of the match between Nottingham and the Australians. Weather was sunny, and the wicket in perfect condition. The Australians, who had made 608 for 7 overnight, were all out for 675 of which Hendry made 51. Hardstaff took 5 wickets for 133 runs.

Nottingham's first innings was a very poor display of cricket, the side being dismissed for a total of 58, Gregory taking 4 wickets for 23, McDonald 3 for 24 and Mailly 2 for 1.

Nottingham were forced to follow on and their second innings terminated for a hundred runs, to which Carr made 31. Gregory took 3 for 26 and Mailly 4 for 36.

Australians' fielding was perfect and was a great factor in bringing about their win by an innings and 517 runs.

Men's Doubles. First Round:—Gordon Lowe and A. H. Lowe beat Dass and Bharpur 6/0, 6/4, 6/4. Haughton and Hick beat Sleem and Ritchie 6/2, 6/2, 6/2.

Mixed Doubles, First Round:—Deane and Mrs. Gracey beat Watt and Miss Kemmis Betty 8/6, 6/3.

Second Round:—Deane and Jacob beat Hall and Jimenez 6/0, 6/1, 6/3

Fifth Round:—Shimidzu beat Lycett 6/3, 9/11, 3/6, 6/2, 10/2.

The last result absolutely upset public confidence that Lycett was a certainty for the final. The match was played before a record crowd and was a pure test of stamina in gruelling heat. Lycett had to be sponged and fed with Champagne after every other game. Shimidzu beat Lycett continually with a well-judged loss. In the last set Lycett was 7/6 and 40/15, but by a tremendous effort Shimidzu won the game and then the set at 10/8 amid great demonstration. Tilden expresses the opinion that Shimidzu will be a hard proposition to defeat. He is improving every match driving harder and volleying with more certainty presenting a confidence in marked contrast to his last year's diffidence.

SPECIAL FLAT PURSE FOR DEMPSEY. CARPENTIER CONTEST.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 27.

New York.—Tex Rickard, the Promoter of Dempsey-Carpentier fight, announces a special flat purse of half a million dollars will be put up for the fight, instead of each boxer receiving a percentage of the receipts. Dempsey will receive 300,000 dollars for win or lose and Carpentier 200,000.

MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP OF BRITAIN CONTEST.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM)

LONDON, June 28.

At the Holland Park Hall, in a twenty round contest, for the Middleweight Championship of Britain for Lonsdale Belt. Kid Lewis (Aldgate) beat on points Jack Bloomfield (Islington).

WHO WILL WIN?

BOTH CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, June 27.

New York.—With the approach of Depsey-Carpentier contest, the United States has gone fight mad. The general belief is that Dempsey will win, but the Champion's admirers are nervous, and, in spite of assertions that Dempsey is unbeatable, they fear that Carpentier has something up his sleeve of an unprecedented nature. This atmosphere has been cleverly fostered by Deschamps, by secret training tactics, for while Dempsey has been sparring in public at Atlantic City, with negro bands playing Jazz music between bouts, and flags flying from the roof, Carpentier has been training in his camp at Manhasset, which is idyllic and quiet, and works behind the curtain of secrecy. Carpentier spent yesterday fishing in the Long Island Sound.

"BEAST" VS. "GENTLEMAN"!

Every day, Newspapers publish a photogarph of Dempsey under the title of "The Beast" and the photograph of Carpentier in a parallel column under the title of "The Gentleman" with predictions that Carpentier has no chance. Dempsey is quoted as saying that he is going to win as decisively and quickly as he can, but, on the other hand, Carpentier says "I shall beat him if every bone in my body is broken." Betting on Dempsey has lengthened to 4 to 1, but little Carpentier money is being offered. The battle will be fought in the largest arena in the world, accomodating 90,000 persons.

Mr. Howard, Secretary of the International Reform Bureau, has given a notice, in Atlantic City, of his intention of seeking injunction in the Courts that the contest is contrary to the Laws of New Jersey, but the promoters of the fight believe that nothing will come of it. Dempsey's weight is 194 pounds and Carpentier's 172.

LONDON, June 27.

POONA FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT.

DURHAM WIN HALLENGE CUP.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

POONA, June 30.

A fast and well contested game was witnessed this evening when the Durham Light Infantry and Argyll and the Sutherland Highlanders met in the final of the Poona District Football Tournament. Neither side was able to score in the first period, though some close shots at either goal were put in. Not long after the second period started, a penalty against the Highlanders gave the Durhams a free kick, which enabled them to score first and as it turned out, the only goal of the match. Although the Highlanders put in several close shots after this, they were never able to find the net and the Durhams ran out winners by one goal to nil.

General Sir Skipton Climo presented the challenge cup and medals to winners and medals to runners up.

PREMIER'S ADVICE TO SETTLE DEADLOCK ONCE FOR ALL.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 27.

In opening the Coal Conference at the Board of Trade to-day, the Premier merely counselled the parties to settle the deadlock once and for all. The Miners' Executive were disappointed that the Premier had not promised the renewal of offer of the ten-million subsidy but Mr. Chamberlain in the House of Commons, this afternoon, said that if the question of the subsidy arose during the course of the negotiations, he would submit the matter to the House of Commons, and he hoped that the Members would submit the matter to the House of were negotiating.

CONFERENCE OF CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE.

ADVANTAGES BY AMERICA'S PARTICIPATION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 27.

The conference of the international chambers of commerce opened in London to-day and was attended among others by seventyfive delegates representating fifteen hundred trade organisations in the United States. Lord Birkenhead, addressing the Conference, said he believed that the conference was able to render greater services towards restoring trade than any other body. They had in the American participation an advantage not possessed even by the [illegible] Nations. It would be useless to estragise any nation from their discussions. Mr. Bedford, chairman of the Standard Oil Company, said the American business men were eager to help in the reconstruction of the world but unproductive expenditure on the part of the governments must end. All mankind was longing for the limitation of armaments and realisation of this ideal was the duty of the world's statesmen.

SITUATION IN TEXTILE INDUSTRIES.

ANOTHER AGREEMENT BETWEEN CAPITAL AND LABOUR.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 27.
Recd. 3-15 p.m., July 1.

The industrial cloud affecting a quarter of million workers which has for some time been hanging over the woollen and textile industries has disappeared, as a result of the agreement between employers and operatives involving sixteen per cent reduction in wages compared with the owners' original suggestion of twenty-two per cent.

SIR ERNEST SHACKLETON.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, June 28.
Recd. 10-30 a.m., July 1.

The "Daily Mail" states that Sir Ernest Shackleton will sail from London at the end of August to explore the little known islands in the Atlantic and the Pacific and the uncharted seas of the Antarctic on board the two-hundred ton steamer, The Quest, which will carry a seaplane and captive balloons to chart air currents. After visiting St. Paul's Rocks, Tristan da Cunha and the Gough Island the expedition will prepare at Cape Town for the exploration of the Antarctic. The staff will include six comrades of Shackleton in his former expeditions, namely, Wild, Worsley, Macklin, Stenhouse, Hussey and Green.

FIERCE FIGHTING IN CHINA.

REPORTED BREAK OUT OF HOSTILITIES

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 27.
Recd. 10-30 a.m., July 1.

A Shanghai message states that the long-expected hostilities between the Kwantung and the Kwangsi parties on account of the latter's opposition to Sun Yat Sen's election to the presidency, have now broken out. A fierce fighting is taking place. The Kwangsi-ites are reported to have defeated the Cantonese and to have invaded Western Kwangtung.

THE IRISH MUDDLE.

MR. DE VALERA INVITED BY GOVT.

PREMIER PROPOSES CONFERENCE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 25.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., July 1.

Mr. Lloyd George has written to Mr. De Valera, President of the Irish Republic, saying that the Government is anxious that the King's appeal for reconciliation should not be in vain. He therefore invites Mr. De Valera and any of his colleagues, to whom safe conduct will be granted, to come to London and explore to the utmost with the Premier of the Northern Ireland, Sir James Craig, the possibility of a settlement. The letter says that the Government makes the invitation with the fervent desire to end the ruinous conflict which, for centuries has embittered the relations between the people of England and Ireland, who might live in neighbourly harmony and whose cooperation would mean so much not only to the Empire but to humanity.

A similar letter in alternative terms was sent to Sir James Craig.

The Premier's action is hailed as praiseworthy disregard for personal dignity and forms commonly governing negotiations and marking a supreme effort on the part of the Government to establish peace. It is also considered a prelude to the abandonment of the policy which is neither war nor peace, because in the event of an unfavourable response the Government have no alternative, but to take up arms in a determined spirit and accomplish by force what apparently cannot be achieved otherwise.

PREMIER'S INVITATION TO SIR JAMES CRAIG.

OBJECTED TO BY A SECTION IN ULSTER.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 27
Recd. 10-30 a.m., July 1.

There are clear indications that a section of Ulster opinion resents Mr. Lloyd George's invitation to Sir James Craig to participate in the Conference. A Belfast paper, the "Northern Whig", a Unionist organ, says it is unfair to ask Sir James Craig to meet Mr. De Valera whose hands are steeped in the blood of hundreds of innocent people. The Nationalist organ is [illegible] A Ulster member of Parliament, Colonel Coote, a leading Orangeman, [illegible] which he regards as a plot to subjugate Ulster to the Dublin Parliament. Meanwhile, the Southern Parliament convoked to meet in Dublin on June 28th is a foregone conclusion. Only four Unionists out of 128 are likely to attend.

RUSSIAN REFUGEES

REPATRIATION OR DISTRIBUTION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 27.

Geneva.—The Council of the League of Nations has decided to create a high commissariat to deal with the repatriation or distribution of the Russian refugees in the foreign countries. It is estimated that they number two millions including a hundred thousand of General Wrangel's troops. A sum of two hundred and fifty million francs is required to establish a Commissariat and Governments concerned will be invited to find money. They will be asked to examine how far certain Russian deposits in banks in their respective countries may be utilised.

RAILWAY SMASH NEAR PARIS

23 KILLED AND 43 INJURED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

PARIS, June 25.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., July 1.

CABLE ITEMS.

At the question-time Mr. Bridgeman stated that since April 1st 335,000 tons of coal had been imported from the United States, 436,000 from France and 495,000 from Belgium including 160,000 tons which were known to be of German origin.

ROME.—The Cabinet has resigned, following upon the Chamber narrowly passing a vote of Confidence by 234 votes to 200.

General Sir John Cowans left 8,822 sterling.

Mr. Robert Lorraine, actor, is, on July 14th, martying Miss Winifred, Daughter of Sir Thomas Strangman, whom he met whilst en route from the East to England.

His Majesty the King on Monday presented the Polo Cup to Strawbridge who represented the American Polo Team at Buckingham Palace.

BATAVIA.—Members of the Royal Opera Company (formerly Messrs. H. B. Waring and Company) who had a successful season in India earlier in the year are at present stranded in Java penniless. Their manager is about to place them at the disposal of the Dutch Emigration Authorities but the British Consul is taking up the case.

PICKETING IN BOMBAY.

OBJECTIONABLE POLICE METHODS.

Yesterday the picketing of liquor and toddy shops were conducted very peacefully at Girgaum, Tardeo, Kamatipura, Byculla, Parel and Dadar. At Mazagon and Dongri picketing was started from yesterday. At Girgaum volunteers were found posted at a distance of 10 to 15 feet from the liquor shops as also Kamatipura. At Foras Road the volunteers were asked by the police officers to stand in the middle of the road, between the two tram lines. Of course, this is a clever plan found out by the police to picket the shops unsatisfactorily; if the volunteers appeal to the people, who enter the shops, with persuasive words, this may not be heard by them from such a distance; volunteers are thus disturbed by the passing of tram cars, motor cars and victorias, etc., and they would naturally be prevented from doing picketing work properly. At Jacob Circle and Byculla Bridge, the volunteers were not allowed to stand at any distance, involving complete stoppage of picketing.

ARRESTS OF PICKETS.

On the 27th ultimo, two volunteers, Papa Bapoo and another, were arrested and on the next day they were placed before the Honorary Magistrate at Mazagon and sentenced to a fine of Rs. 5 each. On the same day another volunteer by name Dhin Mahamad Nanpoo was arrested for no ostensible reason and sentenced by the Honorary Magistrate to a fine of Rs. 20; but he cheerfully went to jail without paying the fine. These volunteers were arrested near the liquor shop owned by Mr. Pestonji (L. No. 83), on two successive days. At Chinchpokly when two volunteers were doing picketing work quietly, some police officers came and asked them to remove their dress, which they refused; then the officers called out a sepoy standing by and asked him to get them arrested and to take them to the Police Chowky.

The places where police officers frequently visit and disturb these innocent volunteers, who picket the shops peacefully, are Bai Ratanbai's shop (Foras Road), Dhukar Restaurant (Ripon Road), Bar and Restaurant near Byculla Bridge, Mr. Pestonji's shop (Parel Road, Byculla), and lastly the shop owned by Mr. Khodadad Irani (at Chinchpokly). At other places the police sepoys or jamadars go about very often and ask the volunteers to stand aloof.

As was mentioned in yesterday's issue the serving of liquors and toddy in places other than licensed places is going on. Neither the police nor the Abkari authorities have opened their eyes up to the present, and bring to book these shop-owners for illicit sale of liquor.

POLICE WAYS AGAINST PICKETING.

On Thursday evening an European police officer with a posse of sepoys arrived at the [illegible] liquor shop in Parel Road, close to Byculla Station East and [illegible] pushing out the volunteers, who were standing at a distance of 15 to 20 feet from the liquor shop. These volunteers, who posted themselves near the three shops near the Victoria Gardens inclusive of this liquor shop were pushed out to a distance of 200 feet and they were not allowed to remain in front or by the sides of the shops at any distance. This naturally encourages the drunkards to get into the shops and drink as they please.

The police are thus indirectly encouraging drinking by these methods, when the innocent volunteers do their work without creating the slightest disturbance.

THE PICKETS.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE".

Sir,—I have for now sometime watched the work of these men and I think it is admirable. If we continue this really elevating work, we shall surely have saved many a man and families from the degradation of poverty and ruin which drink leads to. Instead of muttering beads by the millions and shouting litanies and prayers day after day, year in and year out were one lazy padrees to devote themselves to something practical like the liquor shop picketing, at, what a change there would be in some things we see and which ought never to happen in our midst. Some one said the other day before a bench of Honorary Magistrates that these picketers were paid rupees two or so for 3 hours of work. But I fear this gentleman forget and that it is not the cash alone that these men work for. In any case I feel real practical work is being done and they carry my admiration.—Yours, etc.

The Retreat Mahim, June 24.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.
Saturday, July 2, 1921.

THE CRORE COMPLETE.

The scenes of enthusiasm at meeting after meeting attended by Mahatma Gandhi, Mrs. Naidu, Mr. V. J. Patel and the brothers Shaukat and Mohamed Ali on Thursday can hardly ever have been surpassed in any city of the world, and this intense enthusiasm in Bombay was not a mere affair of shouting and applause. That it was sincere is proved by the vast sum—some 15 lakhs—collected for the Tilak Swaraj Fund in those few hours. If the crore which Gandhi asked for as the people's sacrifice was not complete on the 30th June, Gandhi's faith in India has within a few hours been justified; and India's faith in Gandhi has been proved to all the world. The whole campaign has been the personal triumph of one man; the other leaders were received with rousing cheers wherever they went and their speeches were heartily applauded; but for Gandhi the whole audience rose, the cheering was so heartfelt that it brought the tears to people's eyes. Gandhi is not only respected; he is loved and reverenced as if he were indeed the very soul of India which he loves so well. This small frail figure in white raiment is undoubtedly the most impressive and significant figure in modern politics; for Gandhi stands for something more than non-co-operation with the Government of India, something more than the aspirations of the people of India. He stands for righteousness in face of all the rulers of the world; and yesterday he won his first great victory. India won it for him, he will say; but India says that it is his and no-one else's. There can be no such thing as envy or dislike of such a man who asks for nothing for himself, the bare idea of whom could never be associated with the thought of self-importance; and it is probable that never, in any political party, has there reigned such perfect harmony among the leaders as in the non-cooperation camp where Gandhi reigns. It is typical of the honesty of this great leader that he did not announce the crore complete on Thursday night, although he had good cause to know that it would be completed in the next few hours. In fact, within the next few hours it was completed and surpassed. The ordinary political leader would not have been thus scrupulous in such a case, but Gandhiji is not an ordinary political leader. That is why he is so dear to Indian hearts; and this further proof of his entire trustworthiness, though Heaven knows it was not needed, will endear him yet the more to all his countrymen. The present victory is due unquestionably to the sacrifices of the people in the Bombay Presidency, which is Gandhi's country; and thus an ancient proverb is for once belied. It is probable that when the news goes forth, the rest of India will be moved to challenge our immense supremacy, and the crore may rise to two or three crores in the next few weeks.

"HOME" PROPAGANDA.

According to mail papers, a minister of God of the name of the Rev. Poyntz Sanderson is trying to frighten his hearers with lies touching the situation in India. Descanting on the effects of "Reforms" Mr. Sanderson told the Manchester Rotary Club that Indians had shown no sense of responsibility and "were using the power we had given them to make Government impossible". This is a libel on the "representatives" of the people than whom a more managable lot amenable to official flummery, it would be difficult for this country to supply. Mr. Sanderson, not content with attacking the domesticated legislators of Simla, proceeded to alarm his audience with stories of current cataclysms in India. For, we see that Mr. Sanderson addressed rhetorical queries of which the following is a mild sample: "Can you wonder that the British Government is falling into contempt and that it is believed in India that British rule is doomed? Is it surprising that deserted by their Government, the British in India are discouraged, or that English women are insulted in the streets of Calcutta?" It is, of course, a dastardly lie served to inflame listeners against Ind[illegible] what we want to know is h[illegible] of this sort are propagated in Britain. The mystery is cleared as the identity of this clergyman is exposed. The annual report of the European Association (1920) affords the clue. Publicity work in England for which the Association supplies funds, is directed from the Central Administration in Calcutta. Notes and cuttings are mentioned as being regularly passed to Colonel Ewart, their publicity agent. As for the Rev. P. Sanderson, he is in the pay of the European Association. For we read in the Annual Report:—

"In addition to the scheme outlined, the services of the Rev. P. Sanderson have been enlisted. He is a well-known Lecturer on Imperial matters. A series of lectures are arranged for him by Colonel Ewart. He is able to obtain the ear of labour and arrangements are being made for him to address men during their dinner hour in some of the large works. For this he is paid at the rate of £365 per annum plus out of pocket and travelling expenses."

Hired for £365 per annum plus an allowance, this worthy apparently is dependent for instructions on the functionaries of the Association at Calcutta. We point out this fact because our Moderate friends have bemused themselves into the belief that the European community in India are cordial friends of the "Reforms", anxious to give them fairplay and willing to observe an entente cordiale. The vilification for which the European Association have made themselves responsible through their agent, makes out Indian Councillors to be a gang of subversionists, without a thought of their conspicuous virtues of faithful attachment. While superficial civilities are exchanged in Councils and lobbies, our friends are on the sly defamed as obstructionists and enemies of Government. From the unsurpassable quality of his lies, it is obvious that Mr. Sanderson deserves better pay.

LEGALISED SLAVERY IN CEYLON.

The Ceylon Government have published the draft of an ordinance aiming at the repeal of certain barbarous labour laws which have obtained in that island for more than fifty years. Though we note with satisfaction this belated attempt to set matters right, we cannot but be both amazed and pained at the extent of the wrongs which the governing authorities thought fit to inflict on the children of the soil at the instigation of capitalistic interests. One has only to peruse the provisions which are now sought to be abolished to realise the extent of the legalised slavery which has prevailed in Ceylon all these years under the protecting wing of "the greatest democracy the world has ever seen." Section 11 of Ordinance No. 11 of 1865, which is proposed to be repealed, provides that "any servant or journeyman artificer, who, without reasonable cause, shall fail or neglect to attend work or leave unfinished or refuse to finish work, or be guilty of any drunkenness, wilful disobedience of orders, insolence, or gross neglect of duty or other misconduct in the service of his employer, or who shall quit the service of such employer without leave or reasonable cause, shall be punishable by the Police Court by forfeiture of wages or by imprisonment with or without hard labour not exceeding three months, or by forfeiture of wages together with imprisonment." Imprisonment with hard labour for offences of the nature mentioned in this Ordinance, though not unknown in the West, has long ceased to disfigure the legislative records of most civilised countries, but in Ceylon it has continued to obtain to this day not only in theory but in practice as well. During the last two years we had more than one occasion to draw attention to punishments of this type awarded to defaulting labourers in the tea plantations.

Even more scandalous is the punishment provided in section 12 of the same ordinance. The section makes servants "engaged to go upon a journey who desert or who refuse to go upon such journey" liable to forfeiture of wages and (or) imprisonment not exceeding three months! The section also provides that no servant shall be obliged to travel on foot more than 25 miles during every 24 hours, or to carry a greater weight than 40 lbs., or to proceed on such a journey if ill or suffering from a bodily injury rendering him incapable of completing the journey or any stage thereof. Any contravention of these provisos is made punishable by a fine not exceeding £5 and (or) imprisonment not exceeding three months. That is to say, if a servant refused or expressed his inability to travel on foot 25 miles or less during every 24 hours or to carry a load weighing 40 lbs. or less during such journey, he might be liable not only to forfeiture of wages, but also "imprisonment not exceeding three months". Could anything more monstrous? And the Ceylon tea industry has "prospered" under such a system of legalised slavery!

Notes of the Day

Towards Peace?

The Premier's invitation to Mr. De Valera, "the President of the Irish Republic," and his colleagues, to a round table conference with Sir James Craig, the Ulster leader, constitutes a definite victory for the Sinn Fein movement in Ireland. After several months of repression, the British Government have seen that repression is no remedy for Ireland's ills. Ireland has refused to be cowed down by brute force. In spite of all his past bluster, Mr. Lloyd George seems to have realised at this late hour that a radical change of policy is absolutely necessary if the link connecting Ireland with the Empire is to be maintained intact. The appeal on the part of his Majesty to Irishmen of all ranks to forgive and forget appears to have been prompted from a real desire to end the deplorable tension in Ireland. It goes without saying, of course, that a section of the Premier's supporters will revolt against the idea of conducting any negotiations with a "rebel" like Mr. De Valera. It is extremely probable that Mr. Lloyd George, being fully aware of the risks he is running, has definitely resolved to assert his own commonsense. The new move is undoubtedly a clever one and is calculated to win for the Premier the support of Independent Liberals and Labourites who have hitherto held aloof from him. We cannot say whether the negotiations between the Sinn Fein leaders and Sir J. Craig will lead to anything fruitful. But the new development is full of significance and we must watch and see what will be the outcome of it.

Burdens of Mandates.

What the mandates may mean, in hard cash, to the people of Mesopotamia was indicated in the debate in the House of Lords last week, a perfunctory account of which was cabled by Reuter. Lord Islington criticised the expenditure in Mesopotamia and Palestine resulting from the acceptance of the mandates. The burden on the finances of Britain is, of course, a matter for the latter to accept or reject, though those who have imposed this burden have not done so without making sure of the Mesopotamian oil. But the Arab Government, which is, of course, not yet fully established, is paying a heavy price for British "guidance." It is maintaining a number of British officials. The advisory officers are servants of the British Government, but are paid by the Arab Government. Their number is provisionally estimated at seven attached to the Ministers, eleven divisional and twenty-one assistant divisional officers. Though, we are told, there are not more than half a dozen British officers attached to the Arab army, there are numerous officers in technical and scientific services, for instance, railways, posts, telegraphs and agriculture, paid by the Mesopotamian Government. The official spokesman who gave this information did not care to state how much this British "guidance" will cost the Arabs of Mesopotamia.

Empire Credits.

The plea of both the Government of India and His Majesty's Government that India's exclusion from the Empire Credits Scheme has been carried out in India's own interests, is well exploded by Sir Maneckjee Dadabhoy, who, however silly his political opinions are, is a shrewd businessman. His position as a governor of the Imperial Bank of India entitles him to judge as to the so-called benefits of the exclusion. One would like to know whether the proposal to exclude India from the scheme was suggested to the Government of India by any responsible section of the mercantile public of this country or whether the plan was evolved solely in the brain of the financial "experts" of Government. Will Mr. Hailey throw light on this subject? Or, he may avail of the services of Sir William Vincent and his Publicity Committee to remove the misapprehension in the minds of the public that the decision arrived at behind the backs of the public of this country was prompted not so much in the interests of Indian merchants as those of Britishers and Europeans. Sir Maneckjee has also done well to point out to the Government of India that they are in the main responsible for the contretemps that has arisen over the question of payments by the piece-goods merchants of this country.

Bhai Sardul Singh.

As part of the campaign of repression, the sentence of five years' transportation imposed on Bhai Sardul Singh by Mr. Harris, additional District Magistrate, does not come as a surprise, though its severity is calculated to suggest a spirit of vindictiveness. Besides being the leader of a forward policy among the Sikhs and the chief promoter of non-cooperation among Sikhs, Sardar Sardul Singh was also the chief instrument in starting the "Akali", an organ of the Sikh League, and keeping it going, inspite of the difficulties created both by sycophants among his own community and the agents of Government. A man of liberal views and rare courage, he preferred to court displeasure of Government and officialdom to sacrificing his principles, and we may well believe that he has now paid the penalty, which sooner or later many a true patriot must pay. Bhai Sardul Singh's parting message to the Sikhs reveals the stuff of the man. He exhorts the Sikhs to carry on agitation with renewed vigour and work hand in hand with the leaders of the national movement. He himself feels happy in his lot because is it not given only to few to suffer in a great and glorious cause, and through their suffering to achieve for themselves and their country the freedom for which she is fighting? We hope Bhai Sardul Singh's example will be a beacon light to the Sikhs in their struggle for religious and political freedom and a warning to them to be on their guard against being misled into the wrong path by "enemies in their own camp".

India's Debt.

The "Pioneer," with the aid of certain figures given in the Empire Day Supplement of "The Times," has tried to prove that the financial position of India at the present day is a good deal stronger than that of most other parts of the Empire. The journal points out that per head of the population the United Kingdom has a gross debt today of £167-8-0, as against the pre-war figure of £15. The debt of Australia, per head, is £62-1-0 against £2, Canada 344 dollars against 68 dollars, New Zealand £170-5-0 against £84 and £17. In the case of India, we are told the debt has increased from £1 to £1-3-0 only. Thus while the rise in debt has been about 1,000 per cent. in the case of the United Kingdom, and 3,000 per cent. in the case of Australia, it has amounted to 15 per cent. only in the case of India. The "Pioneer," of course, realises that these calculations will have no meaning without a reference to the income per head in each country. The present incomes per head of the United Kingdom, Australia and Canada are given at £120, £98, and 370 dollars against the pre-war figures of £50, £53, and 180 dollars respectively. To get at India's income the "Pioneer" depends on Sir Robert Griffen's estimate of 1903, namely, £2 per head per annum, and, suggesting that it has increased by 100 per cent., arrives at the conclusion that India's debt is less than 29 per cent. of her present income per head. But before one accepts the "Pioneer's" conclusion, it is necessary to point out that the estimate of £2 per head given by Sir Robert Griffen and accepted by Lord Curzon was challenged by the late Mr. William Digby and was proved by him to be quite wide of the mark. Mr. Digby showed conclusively that the average income could not be estimated at a higher figure that 12s. 6d. per year. Again, the Allahabad journal opines that the income has increased 100 per cent. since pre-war days. What are the "Pioneer's" grounds for such a statement or is it merely guess-work? India did not benefit through foreign trade or increased productivity during the war to the extent suggested by the journal. Taking the most optimistic view, we do not think that the income per head exceeds £1, if it does not actually fall below it by a shilling or two. Adopting this figure we shall find that India's debt per head is not "less than 2% per cent" as the "Pioneer" suggests, but a good deal more than 100 per cent. of her income. On the basis of the "Pioneer's" own calculation, the United Kingdom's debt is just under 140 per cent. of her income. Looking to the relative productive capacities of both countries and to the fact that while each succeeding year sees the United Kingdom's debt rapidly diminishing, while India's shows a tendency to rise, it is a mockery of facts to say that India's financial position compares favourably with that of either the United Kingdom or other parts of the Empire, not to speak of the "organised loot" of her resources by financial muddlers of Haileyan brand.

A Calendar for 1921.

The current number of the "Indian Post and Telegraph Magazine" contains description of a curious discovery made by a student in the way of a simplified calendar for the current year. He has invented a sentence to represent the year 1921, which reads as follows:—"Shortly, God may bestow a sure method of happy success for India." There are 12 words in this sentence to represent the 12 months in order. The number of letters in each gives the number of the day of the week on which the first of that month falls.

WHAT WE MUST DO NOW.

BOYCOTT FOREIGN CLOTH.

BY AUGUST 1

(BY MAHATMA GANDHI)

God is great. He sends help from unexpected quarters. It was but a few days ago that Mr. Das telegraphed saying Bengal had collected no more than three lakhs. It was no small thing for me to announce that India had not given the full crore on the due date. I struggled with friends for getting the deficit underwritten. They were ready to give it to me but they would not disclose their names to the world as in their opinion it looked like seeking notoriety. They thought that it was better to leave the figure where it was and try to collect the balance before the meeting of the All-India Congress Committee. I capitulated but I was sore at heart that God had not answered prayer. And yet I knew Him to be an unfailing God. He sent Bengal to the rescue and ratified the nation's undertaking at Bezwada. Let us be humble and praise Him. But we dare not tarry on the road to make merry. We must march forward. Each Province should at least make up its numerical proportion of the crore, although the total collection amounts now to one crore and five lakhs.

But our next inevitable step is to bring about a complete boycott of foreign cloth. On the 1st of August we celebrate the anniversary of Lokmanya's death. We can, if we make a definite special effort, bring about an almost complete boycott of foreign cloth before that date. I know it requires the consensus of an overwhelming majority. But it is not impossible to reach it if we would work with the same zeal as we have for the collections. Then and not till then will India have attained the power to establish Swaraj. I cannot conceive any better celebration of the anniversary of Lokmanya's death than a complete boycott of foreign cloth.

MANDVI'S RESPONSE.

OVER A LAKH COLLECTED.

MAHATMA'S APPEAL TO LADIES.

For the purpose of making further collection of money for the Tilak Swaraj Fund a Meeting was held last evening under the auspices of the Mandvi Ward Congress Committee, at New Chinch Bunder. Admission to the godown where the Meeting was held was by tickets and yet more than ten thousand people were present.

MR. MAHOMED ALI.

At the outset Maulana Mahomed Ali said that by twelve o'clock that night if they failed to collect a crore of rupees their country would be in a position of bankruptcy. They had paid many crores when the Government had wanted in the name of war loan and Our-Day subscriptions. Now they were asked to give only a crore in the name of their country and if they failed to do that the next morning they would see big leaders in the Anglo-Indian press in black borders, ridiculing their inability. Every minute was now worth more than a thousand rupees and they must make the best of it.

MR. SHAUKAT ALI.

Maulana Shaukat Ali said the Khilafat workers were mere fakirs and they had no wealth in the world except their staunch faith and hence they were unable to give puncely donations for the cause which Mahatma Gandhi had made his own. However, some time ago, while they were collecting funds at Ghatkopar, they received a Khilafat note which Mrs. Naidu put on auction and realized Rs. 7,000. He begged to offer that amount to the Mahatma on behalf of the Khilafat workers.

The offer was accepted amid prolonged cheers.

Mrs. Sarojini Naidu then spoke and put to auction several articles given to the Tilak Swaraj Fund when a piece of fine khadar on which Mahatma Gandhi was seated, was sold for Rs. 500.

MAHATMA GANDHI.

The Mahatmaji said the great enthusiasm which he had noticed with the men and women at Bombay promised a hopeful future and he hoped they would be able to realize the vow which they had once taken in Calcutta and then again at Nagpur. He did not know till that hour what exact amount was collected in the country. But only a few minutes ago he learnt that the Kathiawar had collected more than two lakhs and in that morning he received a cheque for Rs. 25,000 from a gentleman. They did not expect anything more than 50,000 from Kathiawar. From what he had been noticing he was hopeful that a crore would be collected. But he wanted to be sure about it and therefore, wanted an assurance from some of the Millowners of Bombay that in case the wanted amount was not collected, they would make up the deficit. He earnestly hoped he would get such an assurance. Continuing he said that he would take that opportunity of speaking a few words to the ladies about the faith and prestige of their country. As every one knew women were the trustees of their honour and they were the producers of the nation The nation could be a strong or an ideal nation only when their women were thoroughly religious and patriotic. At present the chastity and the religion of the Indian women was involved in khadar. He therefore appealed that they should from now abandon all foreign clothes and adorn themselves and their children in pure khadar.

More collections were made at the Meeting and it is understood that in all more than a lakh was collected there on this occasion.

Several speakers addressed the meeting about the conviction of Sardar Sardul Singh. Before the meeting closed several speakers dwelt on the potentialities of the charkha.

THE CRORE COMPLETED.

INDIA ENTERING A NEW ERA.

"USE PURE SWADESHI CLOTH."

GANDHIJI AT BANDRA.

Yesterday morning a meeting was held at Bandra to present a purse to Mahatma Gandhi for the Tilak Swaraj Fund. Mrs. Sarojini Naidu accompanied by Mr. Gandhi from Bombay. Was in spite of the rain which was pouring into the pandal through the roof there was quite a large audience, representing the different communities in Bandra. A cheque for Rs. 15,000 was presented to Mr. Gandhi, in addition to some small collection of money on the spot by Mrs. Naidu and others.

MR. PATEL.

Mr. V. J. Patel in welcoming Mr. Gandhi on behalf of the people of Bandra said that day should be written in letters of Gold, for every word of what he has going to say was truth and nothing but the truth. Last night up till 1-30 a.m., they had been at the Laxmikant Natak Mandli's performance in aid of the Fund, and even there they had received nothing but gold and silver for the fund Mahatma Gandhi had asked them to collect one crore of rupees within less than two months for the Swaraj Fund and they would be glad that rich and poor, high and low, Parsis and Hindus, Moslems and Christians, had given their share to the fund. They had already ascended the first step to Swaraj. Up to this time Indians were sleeping; we were in torpor and we did not know whither we were drifting. We were all working under the delusion that Government would lead us to Swaraj. But one Indian awakened himself from the stupor and that was Mahatma Gandhi and he awakened the whole of India from its torpor. He saw the real road to Swaraj and when he saw it he shook the whole India out of the torpor in which she was. He was glad that they had taken the first step to Swaraj so successfully and it was their duty to go by that path straight away without taking any false steps. It was far better that they should go slowly than that they should retrace their steps. It was the duty of Indians to take the right path and the straight path, by which their leaders would lead them. Indians were determined to do [illegible] of the many difficulties which [illegible] them on all sides.

For some time past they in Bandra had been going on with this agitation for Swaraj and he was sorry they had done very little in that respect. It was through their own fault that they had done so very little for the movement. He hoped, however, that the Mahatma would consider the situation properly before blaming them. The people of Bandra belonged to various communities, and there were not many rich men—for the first thing they saw when they came down to Bandra was the slaughter house. Therefore the sum collected had been subscribed for only by the poor and the middle classes. He was sorry that they had not been able to collect a larger sum than that, for if they had been able to collect more than Rs. 15,000 they would have certainly got Swaraj. There were men in Bandra who if they had wished it could very easily have given 15 lakhs, but they were men who were always backward in coming to the help of such movements. And all the money had been collected by contributions from the poor and the middle class people of all communities. It was better to collect sum in that way than that the whole amount should be given by one rich man. Up to this time they had got 500 members of the Congress on their register and from the absence of any yarn offered to Mr. Gandhi he would realise to what extent the charkha was in vogue in Bandra. There were only forty charkhas now working in the town.

MAHATMA GANDHI.

Mahatma Gandhi said they had not been able to get any sleep the previous night. They were in the theatres up till 2 a.m. They had not gone there to see the play but to collect money for the Tilak Fund and when he saw his friend Mahomed Ali bringing in his bag a sum of Rs. 25,000, in addition to ornaments, he was very glad that he had again gone to the theatre after 30 years. That was the reason why the Ali Brothers had not been able to come to the meeting. They were quite tired and exhausted. He himself would not have been able to come there had it not been for his promise to Mr. Patel. He agreed with Mr. Patel that they wanted to collect the amount in small sums from poor men, and he would have been glad if the poor of this land had given him the one crore of rupees by small contributions. They had been able to collect nearly a crore of rupees. Forty-four lakhs had been collected in the rest of India and the balance had been collected in this Presidency. He wanted to publish it that they had been able to collect one crore of rupees and that the honour of this country had been kept. Up to midnight yesterday they had succeeded in collecting about 81 to 82 lakhs of rupees. When they were able to collect such a large sum so few days they would be able to collect the balance very easily. He had, however, talked to some four or five rich men about the deficiency and they had promised to make good the balance. He did not want to publish it to the world that he had taken a guarantee because his friends told him that if their names were published it would merely be advertising them and that the people would not pay their contributions. He was, therefore, glad to announce to them that the crore would be made up. If the sum had been collected in small contributions, he would then say that the men of Bandra were fit for Swaraj. He did not mind at all if the rich people of Bandra had not paid anything. They would be able to pay hereafter. He was not even pained when Mr. Patel had informed him that Bandra would be able to collect only Rs. 10,000. While he congratulated them on collecting the sum he could not congratulate them on the total number of members of Congress they had been able to register and also on the number of charkhas they used. He did not so much care for the crore of rupees, but he did care about the crore of members for the Congress. When he was speaking to a friend about the money he required and was telling him that he would not be satisfied with one crore of rupees but that he required many crores of rupees, his friend told him that even the Victoria Memorial Fund had amounted to about Rs. 52 lakhs and that fund was gathered through the influence of officials by means of "pressure and persuasion". The Tilak Fund had been collected without any pressure and only by means of voluntary contributions. How much greater was their effort then in collecting the amount?

BEZWADA PROGRAMME FULFILLED

They had fulfilled the Bezwada programme! But now they had to collect the members for the Congress and they should also introduce the requisite number of charkhas into every house. They had six crores of families in this land and in every house there must be a charkha. He would not be satisfied with the number of charkhas alone, or the amount of yarn spun by them. He wanted something more than that. He wanted the sign of the charkha on their bodies, that was to say they should wear the khaddar. If they used khaddar then it was a proof positive that they were using the charkha. They were living under a delusion for so many years and they were hence using foreign cloth. If they wanted Swaraj they must make use of khaddar only. Indians must use only Swadeshi cloth, and they must use khaddar for every purpose in life. Lok. Tilak once told a friend of his that even if their country was full of disease and malaria they were not going to go out of India to England and there try for Swaraj. India was their Motherland and however bad the climate might be they had to remain there and they must die there. Unless they were able to do that they would never be happy in this land. If they loved India, if they revered Tilak, who had said that Swaraj was their birthright, then let Indians give up the use of foreign clothes. Only the day before a Parsi lady had sent to him her foreign ornaments worth about a thousand rupees; he had not seen her and he did not even know her name. Why should Indians wear foreign made ornaments? Were all Indian goldsmiths dead? So long as there were Indian goldsmiths who were not getting enough work, why should they wear foreign made ornaments? He was sure that the Parsi sister who had given him her ornaments was now wearing khadder, or if she had not done so already would do so soon. He appealed to them to use only Suddha Swadeshi. He was not appealing for money, for money could be collected any how. But the first thing he would ask of them was to give up the use of foreign cloth. After September he was not going to speak of these things. After September he was going to ask his Moslem friends to use only Swadeshi cloth if they wanted to get the Khilafat question decided as they wished. Every one of them men and women must use the charkha and from to day they must make up their minds to use only Swadeshi cloth. A new epoch had arrived in their activities and if they used Swadeshi cloth their strength would increase manifold.

MRS. SAROJINI NAIDU.

Mrs. Sarojini Naidu said so long they had been talking of Hindu and Moslem unity. But the time had now come when we could no longer talk of Hindu-Moslem unity, for the freedom in India was not for Hindus and Moslems only, but for the whole country. Last night at Bombay they had a revelation of the sympathy of the Parsi community, and to-day she made a special appeal to her Christian brothers and sister to come and join with us because, they too were Indians with us. Most of the Christians had not understood what we were fighting for. Many of them thought it was a war against the Christians. We wanted every Indian to be free in this country. We wanted every Indian,—Hindu, Moslem, Parsi and Christian—to know that he had a hand in the administration of his own country, for the safety and peace in his own country, and that was why we wanted that every one of the other communities should join the Congress. Perhaps they all knew what conditions they had to fulfil by the 30th June—that we should get one crore of rupees, one crore of members and introduce 20 lakhs charkhas everywhere possible—so that we should not depend on foreign cloth. They knew every year cloth worth sixty crores of rupees was imported in to this country and our hard earned money went to Manchester. We sent our cotton and we got cloth manufactured from there and for every rupee that was sent out of this country some of their brothers and sisters must starve and die. That was the reason for producing Charkas in this land. Until we could manufacture our cloth to cover ourselves we could not have elementary freedom in this country and we could not take our pace with the free nations of the world, which produced their own food and their own wearing materials. The Congress subscription was very small—only four annas per year—and she was sure every one in India could pay those four annas. Nobody was so poor who could not only four annas for the country of their birth. She made a special appeal to Goan community to join the fund and not to call themselves that they were foreigners. She had asked the Goanes headwaiter in the Taj to collect some funds and he said it was his duty to do so although he was a foreigner. They should not think that by joining the Congress they would be untrue to any one single tenet of Christianity; the doctrine of Christian religion was Universal Brotherhood, and the Congress taught them that Brotherhood. Every Goan brother and sister must feel that they were the brother and sister of the whole Indian community. They had been working until 2 o'clock last night but their efforts were not in vain. We wanted all people to know that the Christian people were also with us. She appealed to them not to look upon themselves as exibe in this country, as foreigners in this country, but take their share in fighting for freedom.

Mrs. Naidu then appealed for funds and she collected some money from those present at the meeting.

GANDHI CAP AGAIN.

ANOTHER "INSULT" TO MR. HENDERSON.

OBJECTIONABLE TREATMENT TO JOURNALIST.

(From a Correspondent.)

BIJAPUR, July 1.

Mr. J. M. Deshpande, Editor, Mr. Gunderao Manur, Printer of a vernacular weekly the "Karnatak Vaibhav" in Bijapur, were requested by the District Magistrate, Mr. Henderson, to appear before him in connection with certain correspondence in their paper which the Government thought called for a warning. When they appeared the Magistrate shouted "stand up" and refused chairs to them. They protested against his conduct. They both wore Gandhi Cap. He told them that he did not care to treat them with courtesy since they wore Gandhi Cap with the intention to insult him.

Mr. Henderson had only lately convicted Mr. Hanmantrao Kowjalgi, B.A., L.L.B., for the contempt of the Court for wearing it.

Mr. Deshpande is a prominent non-co-operator. He is an M.A., L.L.B., of the Bombay University, a Municipal Councillor and the Editor of the popular paper "Karnatak Vaibhav" and is held in esteem by the people.

The Magistrate's highly discourteous behaviour has caused great indignation and deep resentment among the people.

IMPENDING BREAK UP OF COALITION.

MR. ASQUITH'S SIGNIFICANT SPEECH.

(Reuter's Telegram.)

LONDON, June 27.
Recd. 10-30 a.m., July 1.

In conjunction with the growing belief in the impending break-up of Coalition, may be taken the significant speech by Mr. Asquith at Blackfriars in which Mr. Asquith laid down two main planks on which Liberal reunion would be acceptable to him, namely, Dominion Home Rule for Ireland and adherence to the rigid policy of free trade.

INDIAN PARLIAMENT.

MR. SASTRI ON ITS POWERS.

(Reuter's Special Service.)

LONDON, June 25.
Recd. 10-30 a.m., July 1.

At the Empire Association dinner Mr Sastri on rising to speak was accorded an ovation. He thanked Mr. Whitley for the greetings to the Indian Parliament. The latter was a lusty and vigorous baby and he believed that it would be worthy of its noble lineage. (Cheers.) Other Dominions Parliaments would have to look to their laurels. As he looked down on the crowded House yesterday on the occasion of the debate on Dr. Addison's salary many thoughts had passed through his mind charged with a great degree of complacency. (Laughter.) They in India discharged the elementary duty of finding seats for their members. (Laughter.) He was interested to find how the House of Commons disposed of members without portfolios. (Laughter.) Only ministers without portfolios in India were governors. If they were given two months' notice on half pay no doubt much economy would be effected, but there would also be drastic economy in the efficiency of public service. (Cheers.) The Indian Parliament did not yet require the grim power of guillotine or its unlovely companion the kangaroo. (Laughter.) The Indian Parliament was also superior in not requiring a Sergeant-at-Arms nor possessing the power to refuse supplies. (Laughter.) India was trying on the untried soil to reproduce the virtues of the Mother of Parliaments. He appealed to the sympathy of those who had trodden the path successfully. He welcomed the Parliamentary delegation to India and hoped that in more propitious times the advent of which would be favoured by the visit of the Prince of Wales (cheers) the Empire Parliamentary Association would think it advisable to admit the Par[illegible] of India to its suffrages (Cheers.

In the House of Commons at question time Mr. Kellaway said that the wireless stations at Leafield near Oxford and Abucabal near Cairo would be ready for use before the end of the year. The delay in completion of the stations was mainly due to labour difficulties.

A commission of experts has been appointed to consider the design of the other stations. Pending their construction, arrangements were being made for transmission beyond Egypt of wireless messages between Leafield and Abuzabal.

RICE RING IN BURMA.

QUESTION IN COMMONS.

(Reuter's Telegram)

LONDON, June 27.

In the House of Commons, replying to Col. Wedgwood, with regard to the rice ring in Burma, Mr. Montagu said that he had no reason to believe that the alleged attempt to corner rice had been successful. The Government of India were closely watching the situation, and were taking action to deal with it. He was in telegraphic communication with the Government of India on the subject, but it was a matter for the Government of India and not for the Imperial Government.

GREEK MASSACRE OF MOSLEMS.

POPULATION OF YALOVA TERRORISED.

ONLY 1,500 OUT OF 7,000 LEFT IN ONE DISTRICT.

Writing from Yalova in mail week, the special correspondent of the "Manchester Guardian" gives the following description of the Greek massacre of Moslems in the Yalova district:—

The Yalova district, containing sixteen villages and 7,000 Moslem inhabitants, has been in Greek occupation for nine months. During the past six weeks, since Captain Diditrins Pappagrigoriou took command, all the Moslem villages except two—Samanli and Akkeui—have been destroyed by Greek so-called irregular bands. I found barely 500 survivors of these villages concentrated in Akkeui, Samanli, and the town of Yalova. Within the last fifteen days 15 per cent of the inhabitants of Akkeui have also been killed. The whole Moslem population is terrorised and in daily danger of death.

I arrived yesterday on a Red Crescent steamer with representatives of the British, French, and Italian High Commissions and the Geneva International Red Cross to evacuate all survivors of the Yalova district wishing to leave, the Allied authorities having requested the Greek High Commission at Constantinople in this sense.

Yesterday Captain Pappagrigoriou refused permission to evacuate the inhabitants of the undestroyed villages; to-day he also refused such permission for the refugees of several other villages under different pretexts, each time alleging superior orders.

An energetic protest by the Red Cross representative was ineffective. This Greek officer also refused to forward a telegram from me to General Papoulas, and I am wiring Popoulas independently.

At Yalova the lives of all the local Moslems will be in still greater danger after the departure of the Allied officers.

"IN LEAGUE WITH GREEK BRIGANDS"

These events are part of a general extermination of the Moslems in the Karamursal Peninsula. The malignant and inhumanity of the local Greek military authorities are undisguised. They are openly in league with Greek brigands, whose leaders were present during the embarkation of the refugees. The process of embarkation of 333 people lasted all day owing to obstruction by every possible means on the part of the Greek captain and other Greek officers and a Greek priest claiming to represent the Patriarchate. Local Greeks and Armenians were also permitted to interfere and threaten. One brigand leader actually attempted to remove a refugee, and was shielded by a Greek officer.

The Greek captain constantly shifted his ground for the refusal to allow the departure of all refugees, and showed me an order to restrict their numbers which he had just received from General Leonardopoulos, commanding the Tenth Division.

Today we were prevented from taking about 200 refugees from the destroyed villages. Altogether about 1,200 Moslems in the Yalova district are still left in Captain Pappagrigoriou's power, making, with those rescued today, a total of about 1,500 survivors out of 7,000 existing six weeks ago. The immediate rescue of the Moslem survivors in the Yalova district and the remainder in General Leonardopoulos's area is essential. If Greece values her status as a civilised nation her Government must stop the atrocities, dismiss the officers implicated, and facilitate the alleviation of the pitiable condition of the victims.

Meanwhile, instant action by the Allied Governments and pressure of public opinion are essential.

ALLIES' OFFER OF MEDIATION

GREEK GOVERNMENT DECLINES.

(Reuter's Telegram.)

LONDON, June 26.
Recd. 10-30 a.m., July 1.

Paris.—The Associated Press learns from Athens that the Greek Government has declined the Allies offer. It is semi-officially stated in Athens that the Greek reply to the Allies states that the conduct of the Greek Government can be dictated by military considerations only and any adjournment of the operations would be a disadvantage to Greece. The Greek Government, however, will always be ready to listen to its great Allies at any time during the operations.

MANDATES AND U. S.

LEAGUE OF NATION'S SUGGESTION.

(Reuter's Telegram.)

LONDON, June 27.

The question of America's interest in the Mandates was raised in the House of Commons at the question-time to-day. Mr. Harmsworth announced that a letter had been received from the President of the Council of the League of Nations suggesting that, in view of the intimation from the United States Government that they were unable to accept any decision reached upon this question without their approval the Powers concerned should do their utmost to reach a solution of the points under discussion between them and the United States, so as to enable the Council of the League to settle the whole question of the mandates before the meeting of the next Assembly. Mr. Harmsworth added that His Majesty's Government would consider the best means of giving effect to this suggestion.

PRICE OF STEEL.

STEPS TO COMBAT COMPETITION.

(Reuter's Telegram.)

LONDON, June 27.

A further step to combat the continental competition in price of steel bars has been taken by the Scottish manufacturers who are reducing prices by three pounds sterling a ton. Nevertheless the crown bars are quoted at sixteen pounds compared to the Belgian offer of nine pounds fifteen delivered at the British ports. Further a Scottish reduction is foreshadowed on the coal settlement. Glasgow locomotive manufacturers are very gratified at carrying on the contract for forty-five engines for the New Zealand railways notwithstanding the American and Continental competition.

INDIA'S STRUGGLE FOR SWARAJ

TRUTH ABOUT PRESENT SITUATION.

FAILURE OF OPPRESSION TO STIFLE SPIRIT OF NATIONALISM.

(Specially Written for "The Catholic Herald.") (BY B. G. HORNIMAN.

In no part of the British Empire has the struggle against militarist domination and imperialistic exploitation of foreign peoples assumed a more determined, and, at the same time, more remarkable character than in India, where, after some hundred and fifty years' experience of the "blessings of British rule" the Indian people have united in a solid and unchangeable resolve to make an end, once and for all, of foreign domination and exploitation and to be masters of their own political destiny, and exploiters of their own economic resources. For the last thirty years Swaraj (literally translated "own-rule) had been the dream of but a few ardent patriots, some of whom are now rotting in the goals of India and the penal colony which Colonel Wedgwood has rightly described as the "Hell of the Andaman." But the masses, until recently were apathetic.

After the failure of what is known to Britishers as the Sepoy Mutiny, but what Indians know as the "War of Independence," in 1857 this apathy settled on the people at large, and lasted for over half a century. Never has any rising of a people against foreign rulers been crushed with such ferocity as the Indian rebellion of last century. Wholesale massacres of captured prisoners of war, men blown from the cannon's mouth and led out to slaughter in hundreds at a time, a defeated monarch deliberately blinded and his sons killed in the act of surrender these are but a few of the incidents in the history of the frightfulness by which a people were to be taught the folly and hopelessness of attempting to quarrel with the fate that had for their own good, placed them under the domination of the benevolent British Government. And it was effective for the time being. Beaten down and ground beneath the heel of Imperialism there was naught to do but suffer and wait. But the spirit of a people never dies. It may be enchained; it may sleep. The soporific of "benevolent" policy may be temporarily effective, but the reawakening must come sooner or later. The spark of patriotism remains alive in the breasts of a few and since Imperialism must feed on blood. Imperialism itself will, sooner or later, help to fan the spark into a flame.

THE OLD GAME.

That is what has happened in India. Everything that human effort could do to stamp out the spark was done. Intensive education for the few subtly designed to train an intelligentsia, which should be the prop of a systematised denationalisation and the darkness of ignorance for the masses; the supplanting of true patriotism in the mind of the growing generation by the artificial plant of loyalty to Empire the forcible disarmament of the whole people and permanent prohibition of the carrying of arms by man, woman or child; and of course, the usual bribes of titles and rewards lavishly distributed and the camouflage of the progressive admission of Indian to a share in the administration. For fifty years the policy was superficially successful. The people suffered all the ills and wrongs, inseparable from any form of foreign despotism, bureaucratic or aristocratic, patiently and silently. But they had no leaders to show them the way out. The Indian National Congress which tilled the ground and sowed the seed, which was to produce the inevitable harvest for thirty years left the masses unmoved. It was confined to the educated classes, who for a quarter of a century never even thought of actually demanding self-Government but to do them justice, fought a strenuous battle to ameliorate the lot of the ignorant masses.

THE REAL AWAKENING.

The real awakening of India began ten years before the outbreak of the great war. It was left to Lord Curzon to rouse the storm which first restored the spark to a flame, when he crowned a period of intensive autocracy with the attempt to partition the province and the people of Bengal the most politically advanced and nationalistic of all the peoples of India, and the further attempt to drive a wedge between the Hindus and Mahomedans. The agitation that followed was, of course most intense in Bengal. But the flame extended all over India and was augmented in the Punjab by agrarian troubles. With it began the series of repressive measures which, with an interval of milder rule under Lord Hardinge has progressively assumed the most extreme form now existing. Measures by which the Press is muzzled or kept within the bounds thought desirable by the Administration by which hundreds of patriotic journals have been exterminated or penalised and editors sent to gaol fined or interned; by which thousands of Indians have been thrown into gaol and kept there for years without trial, some of whom in solitary confinement have gone mad or committed suicide by which others have been deported by which district and provinces are proclaimed as soon as their nationalist activity becomes obnoxious to authority; to say nothing of the executions, imprisonments tortures and atrocities which have taken place under martial law, and the savage sentences passed in innumerable cases under the sections of the permanent code dealing with sedition which are as wide as human ingenuity can make them. Of all this however more anon.

ROUSING INDIA.

But the Curzonian regime bore another and a more healthy fruit. It roused educated India to a realisation of its political manhood and out of it grew the demand for self-government which immediately became the first article of the constitution of the Indian National Congress. The intensity of the agitation died down for the time being with the imprisonment of Tilak, the great nationalist leader, and the acceptance by the Moderates—then in the ascendant of the ludicrous so-called reforms introduced by Lord Morley and Lord Minto. But the true nationalist spirit had only been driiven for the time being under ground by the heel of Prussianism and the supineness of leaders. It was intensely alive, and was presently to emerge. Tilak was soon to return to the field and other forces were to arise which would restore it to a position of supremacy from which it can now never be dethroned. And after Tilak, Gandhi came with his clear vision, his impenetrable courage and his uncompromising determination to achieve by soul-force the goal of Swaraj, which Indians could not achieve by force of arms.

First came the war with its promise of freedom for all peoples. British statesmen laid surer foundations in India, than they knew or ever intended, when they prated of freedom and self-determination. India was deluded; but she was awakened. The educated classes threw themselves with enthusiasm at first into aiding a great struggle which was being waged as they were told for Freedom and which must they thought bring them freedom too. The new gospel ran through the bazaars and fields and stirred even the masses. Statesmen might make promises which were never meant to be kept; but India had made up her mind to be free. She was soon to be disillusioned as to the promises: to know that the chains by which she was shackled were to be made stronger still under a gaudy covering of shoddy raiment; but (in the words of Lord Curzon), "you cannot enchain the great world forces which have been unloosed."—and India does not mean to reside in chains. Nothing can alter the act of self-determination which the Indian people have themselves performed. Self-determination is not a gift to be received from the hands of politicians even if there were any intention to give it; it must be the act of the people themselves. And the people of India to the surprise of the opportunist gang of statesmen who sought to befool them, like the people of Ireland and the people of Egypt have made their determination which neither smooth words nor brutal acts can alter.

WHAT IS REALLY TAKING PLACE.

We hear little in this country of what is really taking place in India; our capitalistic press takes good care of that. The tour of a royal duke, or the outbreak of a riot get all possible attention in the newspapers and each is misrepresented, exaggerated, or minimised as occasion demands. We are told that the "reforms" are a great success; that the new legislative councils have shown a commendable spirit of co-operation and reasonableness on part of the Indian members, who are patronisingly patted on the back for their failure to behave like wild beasts in debate or to fulfil the other gloomy prophecies of their utter incapacity for self-government so widely distributed in the press.

But we are not told that these Indian members of the Councils represent an infinitesimal fraction of the electors, the vast bulk of whom boycotted the elections and even so are elected on a ridiculously limited franchise representing a small section of the middle classes and entirely excluding the workers in field or factory. We are not told that the reasonabtness and co-operation displayed mean a tame surrender to all the Government measures and withdrawal of serious opposition at the first crack of the Government whip. We are asked to take comfort in the wonderful rally of the moderate leaders to the Government side. We are not told that there is not one of these so called leaders who dare show his face on a public platform in India. We are not told of the strenuous efforts made to rally the people and their true leaders, all ending in futility and fiasco. We are not told of such remarkable incidents as that which occurred a few weeks ago at Lucknow—only one or many such which have taken place all over the country—when the British officials in combination with Indian Ministers and moderate leaders summoned a town's meeting with the object of forming an "Anti-Revolutionary League." The public response to the summons was enthusiastic and the attendance phenomenal. But the people elected their own chairman a leading non-Co-operationist) and passed a resolution calling upon the Indian Ministers to resign and join the non-Co-operation movement. The moderate leaders quietly disappeared from the hall at an early stage of the proceedings and an Indian member of the Government who remained made an open avowal of his sympathy with non-co-operation.

THE LYING PRESS.

Lord Chelmsford, the retiring Viceroy is welcomed home with a fulsome article in the "Times" which asks us to regard his work in India as epoch-making. It does not tell us that it was so epoch-making that, next to General Dyer and Sir Michael O'Dwyer, he stands third in order of merit among the most hated men in India to-day; that he left India amidst a chorus of execration that was not confined to the so-called extremist press but was shared in by the "moderate" journals as well; that for two years before he left India he was boycotted by public institutions and townspeople in every city he visited. The Duke of Connaught according to the same authority, had a most successful tour and succeeded by his sympathy and tact in pouring oil on the troubled waters. We are not told of his having passed with gaudy ceremonies, through empty streets in Madras, Delhi, Calcutta, Bombay, etc., while shops were closed and every sign of popular abstention from the proceedings was apparent.

We are told nothing that could suggest the real truth—that wherever you go in India to-day you find clear and unmistakeable evidence of the popular determination to have no dealings with British authority of any kind until full Swaraj is conceded that all the forces of oppression and powers of persuasion that the Administration can use serve only to intensify the determination of the people; that the British Administration India is peacefully but gradually being forced into a position where it will have to confess that its functions are paralysed and it is at the end of its resources. But we do not expect to hear of these things from a Government that for nine months did its best to conceal an event like the Amritsar massacre and press that actually reported that battle of a defenceless unarmed crowd as a battle in which the British troops were victorious over the "rebels."!

BHIWANI NEWS.

ATTEMPT TO DIVIDE AND RULE.

(From our Correspondent.)

BHIWANI, June 28.

The whole town is anxious to have a darshan of Lala Lajpat Rai of whom the district of Hissar is so proud. Bhiwani has already completed its share of Congress members and contribution to the Tilak Swaraj Fund.

The friends and admirers of the Tehsildar are trying their best to whitewash his actions. After a futile attempt at a Khilafat meeting a few numberdars, Zeldars and a few persons whose cases are pending in the Tehsildar's Court, called a meeting to pass a resolution of confidence in him as the President of the Committee. The meeting ended in a complete fiasco. The whole public is indignant at such underhand methods. All fail to understand why the Tehsildar is so keen to continue as president after the resolutions of the rate-payers. The Government has already declared its policy for non-official presidents, but with the authorities at Hissar it means nothing.

The local authorities are trying to divide the people into various parties, but the more they do so the more united are the people becoming and this is evident from the fact that all have subscribed to the Swaraj Fund, including even the members of the Rajbhakta Sabha. A ladies' section for the fund has been opened and Mrs. Desai and other Gujrati ladies are making house to house collections.

The local paper the "Peoples' Herald" has now called upon him to declare publicly once for all whether he is a non-cooperator or a co-operator. The challenge has excited great public interest and Mr. Alay Nabi's reply is eagerly awaited as he was one of the stalwarts of the non-cooperation camp and his reply will show whether non-cooperation is falling to pieces like a house built of cards.

MADRAS, June 30.

The Government order on jail administration in the presidency of Madras for the year 1920 says that the outstanding features of the year are the fall in prison population, chiefly due to improvement of economic conditions and substantial decrease in sickness and mortality brought about by special attention paid to sanitation and medical treatment and water supply. Government hope that Madras jails will soon regain their position in India in regard to health statistics which they attained eight years ago.

SARDAR SARDUL SINGH'S CASE.

ACCUSED TRANSPORTED FOR 5 YEARS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, June 30.

In his judgment in the case against Sardar Sardul Singh under Section 124A. I. P. C., Mr. Harris, Additional Magistrate, says:—"Prosecution has proved beyond reasonable doubt that the accused was the author of the articles and, although the accused at the eleventh hour admitted the authorship, the Court held that originally the accused had no intention of doing so and it was to save the accused that the editor and joint-editor of the "Akali" refused to answer the questions put by the Court and were sentenced to six months' imprisonment under Section 179, I. P. C., by another Magistrate."

The Court then discussed the accused's contention in written statement that the articles were not seditious and had been wilfully mistranslated or deliberately torn from the context to give them perverse meaning. As regards the passage (E) in the charge which turned upon the interpretation of the word "Zor" and which the accused thus translated, viz., the energies now being spent for the reformation of Mohants ought to be directed hundredfold in reforming the Government, the Court held that the accused intended force and nothing else. As regards another passage which the accused stated was a reasoned argument against the use of force, after discussing the pros and cons of the statement the Court held that the accused's sentiment was inconsistant with his loyalty to the Government. The accused had not given an explanation with regard to some passages which formed the subject-matter of the charge, and this showed that he had none to offer.

After observing the rest of the accused's statement in which he found fault with various Government officers which the Judge characterised as irrelevant, he said that in the documents of 1919 put in by Mr Bowring, the accused undertook not to take part in politics and journalism. Notwithstanding that apology, he had, within a year and a half, written offending articles at a time of considerable excitement. His Honour sentenced the accused to transportation for five years.

CRUELTY TO CATTLE ON RAILWAYS.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I have to bring to your notice a sad instance of crulty to cattle, which I accidentally came across a few days ago. While waiting for a down passenger at Niphad station on the G. I. P. Railway at about 8 a.m. on the 4th instant, an Up goods train, happened to be in the station. A wagon containing cattle attracted the notice of some people on the platform. Out of curiosity I also went and looked into the wagon.

I found that a number of bullocks had been huddled up in the wagon and the overcrowding was so great, that they could hardly move in their places. They were bumping against each other. The bottom of the wagon was covered with a layer of dung and urine, at least two inches deep. Two of them were actually dead and the carcases were being trampled by the others. Two others had succeeded in sitting down, but they could never hope to stand on their legs again. The stench arising from putrefaction was unbearable. I found from the label attached to the wagon (No. 28468 G. I. P. Railway) that it was loaded at Dhulia on 2nd instant and was proceeding to Deolali. By the time the wagon was at Niphad on the morning of the 4th instant, at least 40 hours must have elapsed since the animals were first locked up at Dhulia Presumably all this time, they were without any food or water. No driver seemed to accompany them. They were all famine striken and were possibly proceeding to a slaughter house. I wanted to count their number, but before I could do so, the goods train started.

Now Sir, I was wondering for a time how the railway rules tolerated such crulty to be practised upon poor dumb cattle. I enquired about the rules and found them to be unexceptionable. Let me quote a few of them.

"1. Station masters must personally examine each wagon of cattle, sheep, goats etc after it is loaded and before despatch, and see that there is no overcrowding or cruelty. This inspection is not on any account to be deputed to others, as station masters themselves will be held responsible "2. At all stations, where trains carrying live stock halt for more than 10 minutes and particularly at Junction Stations, the station master or the Assistant on duty must examine all cattle trucks to see that there is no overcrowding and he must personally see no delay en route occurs in any case to vehicles loaded with live stock of any kind."

"3. Any station master en route who may detect overcrowding should have the wagon cut off and the cattle loaded in excess transferred to any other wagon."

"5. No live stock must be allowed to leave a forwarding station unless the despatcher has provided a sufficient quantity of fodder to feed the animals on their journey and a bucket with which he can give the cattle water when necessary. A driver must also accompany each truck of load of animals."

"7. When taking charge of a train at a [illegible] station or when attaching wagons loaded with live stock to [illegible] trains at a road side station, Guards must see that the above orders as to proper loading, presence of drivers, supply of fodder and bucket, are observed."

None of these beautiful instructions appeared to me to have been observed in this case. It should be noted that between Dhulia and Niphad there are two Junction Stations viz Chalisgaon and Manmad and many Stations where the trains stop for more than 10 minutes.

I cannot think that what I have described above is a solitary instance.—Yours, etc.

RESPECT FOR INDIAN FEELING.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I think the Board of Studies of the University of Bombay consists of a majority of Indians. I wonder how the gentlemen could choose a poem like "A Ballad of John Nicholson' by Henry Newbolt for the First Year students in Arts? Perhaps they think that.

"When the strong Command Obedience is the best" (Newbolt.)

Will the Board be good enough to omit the poem in question, as it would wound the feelings of any honest Indian.

The Board will kindly see that no poem which is humiliating to an Indian shall be included in the curriculum.—Yours, etc.

B. N. RAICHUR.

Dharwar, June 22.

ANGLO-INDIA AND COLONIAL NAVIGATION CO.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The Court having now passed an order for the winding up of the Anglo-India and Colonial Navigation Co., Ltd., it is a settled fact that the shareholders have to loose smilingly all they invested in shares of the Company, and not only that, they may have also to pay something more if called upon to do so by the Official Liquidator appointed by the Court. So far so good. Now I ask are the Directors whom the law regards as custodians of the shareholders' money to go scot free? The moneys may have been recklessly spent by some officer of the Company and the Directors might have to blame that officer, but does that absolve the Directors of their sins of negligence and carelessness in entrusting the play of Company's finance into unexperienced hands like a mere toy in the hands of a baby? I hope the Liquidator will kindly take up this matter as well into his consideration while framing his report and protect as much as possible the poor shareholders from responsibilities of paying to the last for the mistakes of those who receive no punishment.—Yours, etc.

HIGH COURT.

APPELLATE SIDE.

DELIBERATE MURDER OF WIFE.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION BETWEEN JUDGE AND JURY.

ACCUSED SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Imperator
vs.
Harilal Ishverlal.

(Before Macleod, C. J., and Shah J.)

This was a criminal reference under Section 307 of the Criminal Procedure Code submitted by Mr. Dadiba C. Mehta, Additional Sessions Judge of Ahmedabad, as there was a difference of opinion between him and the jury.

The Sessions Judge was of opinion that the accused was guilty of murder under Section 302, I. P. Code, while the jury was of opinion that he was guilty of culpable homicide not amounting to murder under Exceptions (1) and (2) to Section 300, I. P. Code.

The facts are briefly these:—

The accused, a young man of twenty-five years, was a drawing teacher at the Modasa High School. The deceased Amba was the "natra" wife of the accused. The intimacy between the two dated more than three years before this murder. They were living together. The accused took her to Ahmedabad and also to Modasa. They returned to Viramgam during the October vacation and were staying in Balubhai's Chawl. The deceased asked the accused to resign his service at Modasa and seek some employment in Viramgam. Accordingly he alone left for Modasa resigned his service and returned to Viramgam some days before the murder. On his return the accused found that the deceased had changed the room which they previously occupied and come to live in the proximity of Abhesing, Khemshankar Nanchand and others. He also found that these people who never came to his room were very intimate with the deceased and so he suspected the deceased of unchastity. On the 10th February, 1921, the accused came to the room of Bai Amba and demanded the ornaments which she refused to give. Amba wanted to evade the accused so under pretence of obeying the call of nature she left the room with one Bai Dhari, a relative of hers. The accused was asked by Abhesing to clear out, so he left. On reaching the road he saw the deceased and Dhari talking together near the culvert. He approached them and demanded his ornaments, which the deceased refused to give. The accused thereupon attacked the deceased with a dagger and killed her. He then ran away and was subsequently arrested at his mother's place.

The accused made a statement before the Magistrate in which he stated that when he met Amba near the culvert he demanded the ornaments. She refused to give them and seized him and called out Abhesing to come with a knife. That he was frightened as he thought he would be murdered by Abhesing. Upon this he took out the knife from his pocket and circled it all around. He got a push in darkness and did not know upon whom he fell. Having got free he ran away shouting "Police, Police."

"NOT AN ACCIDENT."

The Sessions Judge observed that there was no doubt as to the identity of the assailant. The deceased's nose was cut off. This was very suggestive. It was the usual punishment meted out to an errant wife or mistress by a jealous husband or paramour. The story of the accused that he accidentally fell upon the woman was unbelievable. From the evidence it was clear that the accused had committed murder. The defence of the accused that he killed the deceased in self-defence is not tenable. Why should the nose have been chopped of in self-defence? The accused had not made out a case for the theory of self-defence. It was said that he committed the act under provocation, but looking to the circumstances of the case it could not be grave and sudden provocation. The murder was a deliberate one. No one would carry a dangerous weapon with him without set purpose. Killing for ornament was also a sordid object. The accused's sallying forth with such a dangerous weapon denoted deliberate intention. Considering that the accused circumstanced as he was, had killed the woman out of pure revenge, he failed to see why he should not get the capital sentence. He did not agree with the verdict of the jury as he could not give the sentence under Section 304, I. P. Code. Hanging no doubt was distasteful to the ordinary juror in Gujrat and that was no reason why an offence of murder should be minimised.

Their Lordships after hearing arguments observed that this was a case of deliberate murder. The view taken by the Sessions Judge was, looking to the evidence in the case, correct. The accused had gone with a dagger and not with an ordinary knife to kill his mistress. That was sufficient to suggest that the accused had gone with the deliberate intention of killing the deceased.

There was no grave or sudden provocation. Looking to the heinous nature of the crime the sentence of death suggested by the Sessions Judge was the right punishment. Their Lordships accordingly convicted the accused of murder under Section 302, I. P. Code, and sentenced him to death.

The Government Pleader appeared for the Crown.

Mr. Bansidharlal Damubhai Mehta appeared for the accused.

PIECE-GOODS.

There has not been much activity in the Cloth Market during the past week, and the tone has been quiet owing to the cessation of rain. Buying has lacked energy, although offerings have been made from stock lots. The supplies of well-known cloths are scanty and it is expected that fresh shipments will be delayed. Rupee rates have remained steady with hardly any alteration worth mentioning. Some small parcels have changed hands here and there. If the report of the monsoon are more favourable in the near future, there are hopes of a good demand for cloth from up country, specially in White goods.

The Manchester Market has been steady. The operative cotton spinners in Manchester have unanimously decided to accept the wages settlement, all branches of the spinning trade acquiescing in the reduction. The cotton wages agreement, assuring that industrial peace will last for nine months, is reported to havebeen formally signed and the mills were to reopen on Monday last. It is also reported by the "Madras Mail" that the coal strike has been settled and that the miners are returning to pits. Several offers have been sent by cable and it is hoped that a fair business for forward deliveries will be booked.

The Swadeshi movement has been in full swing. Mahatma Gandhi is now exhorting the merchants to give up dealing in all foreign cloths, and it is left to be seen what response is received to this appeal.

It is gratifying to note that the attitude of dealers regarding the two shillings exchange has met with justification from an influential quarter Sir Maneckji Dadahoy holds the Government of India partly responsible for the solitary episode in the financial history of India, and rightly states that large contracts were then made on the strength of the statement by the Financial Member of the Government of India, which reasonably led the merchants to believe that the exchange would not fall below two shillings.

The Delhi Piecegoods Merchants' Association has communicated to the Government of India Finance Department, a resolution expressing the opinion that the policy of drift in regard to exchange, if persisted in, would bring about the complete ruin of many firms and requesting Government to bring about an amicable settlement.

The Cloth Markets will be closed on Tuesday next owing to the 'Amvas' holiday.

Bombay, July 1.

OUR SHORT CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

OUR short Advertisement Columns are specially meant for the benefit and convenience of our readers. Accordingly the rates have been fixed very low to enable private individuals to make extensive use of them for all practical purposes and thereby save a lot of worry and trouble.

An Everyday Necessity. IF you want a clerk, an engineer, a doctor, a legal adviser, a secretary, a cook or a khitmutgar just advertise in a few short lines for a few days and you will be able to make your selection from a wide field in a very short time without subjecting yourself to obligation to other people.

The Housing Problem. IF you want a room, apartment, flat or a house the classified short advertisement column will help you to secure one without difficulty. Similarly those who have any such to spare can as well secure tenants or boarders through advertising what they have to offer.

Your Own Master. IF you desire not to disclose your identity you should advertise through our "Box" system which is specially meant to help business without necessitating the advertiser to unavoidable onslaughts from middle-men and interlopers.

No Middlemen MANY gentlemen are averse to appear in print in advertisements: traders and merchants sometime use the "Box" system when they do not want to be worried with vexatious enquiries from all possible quarters but who want to know the parties themselves and make a free selection uninfluenced by any consideration.

Special service. THE replies to Box advertisements received are all sorted out in our office and despatched daily at our own cost but those who desire special deliveries should arrange with the office for the special service on payment of a small charge which is a very nominal sum or arrange to obtain to receive the replies direct from the "Chronicle" office.

As interesting as News. THE classified short advertisements have in themselves an importance which equal the interest taken for the news columns. While the news keep you informed of the affairs of the world, the short advertisement columns afford you an opportunity to pick up and secure things for your everyday life to your advantage—and who knows not—at a bargain price as well? There is nothing like publicity.

Advantages. IN these days of pre-occupation, and struggle for life people can ill afford to wait and waste time for getting informations re their particular subject of interest. Competition is so keen and the struggle for existence so widespread that we all want things handy and cannot afford to wait on the sweet will or convenience of others. This is a necessity. To disseminate such information public should make a very liberal use of our short advertisement columns for any information they want and we assure them that such advertisements will always appear in their proper places.

BILLS AT THE COMING SESSION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
CALCUTTA, June 30.

At the forthcoming session of the Bengal Legislative Council which commences on Monday next, two Government Bills, the Bengal Children Bill and the Bengal Land Registration Bill, will be introduced, also one non-official bill, the Bengal Tenancy Amendment Bill. Notice has been given of nearly 140 resolutions on matters of public interest, eight of these refer to the incident at Chandpur on May 20th. They generally ask for an inquiry, punishment of the offenders and measures for preventing recurrence of such happenings in future. Another resolution on the same subject asks that the coolies still stranded in Bengal should be sent home at the cost of the Province. The Council will also be asked to recommend to his Excelency the Governor to discontinue employment of the Gurkha Military Police in areas affected by industrial unrest, and two resolutions ask for an inquiry into the action of local authorities in connection with the escape and recapture of convicts from the Rajshahi Jail. Dr. Maitra will ask for the abolition of age restriction for the Calcutta Matriculation Examination and Dr. H. Suharwardy will move for an inquiry into the rules governing prevention of cruelty to animals in Calcutta. Two other resolutions suggest an inquiry with the object of reorganising the Police Department on more economical and efficient basis, and one member will ask that the Council be informed which of the resolutions passed at the last session have been accepted by the Government and steps taken to give effect to them.

"PRATAP" DEFAMATION CASE

EXAMINATION OF CORRESPONDENTS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
RAE BARELI, June 30.

In the "Pratap" defamation case today, Pandit Devidatta Duvedi, a special correspondent of the "Pratap" was examined and cross-examined. He stated that he went to the villages in the Rae Bareli District on the 11th January to make enquiry into the firings, and everywhere statements were made to him that Barpal Singh fired at and wounded and killed people, while driving in his motor car. He further said that the article published in the "Pratap" of the 19th January, which was one of those upon which action had been taken was written by him after the visit which he paid to the site of burial of the dead bodies with Pandit Malaviya on 14th January. He attested two original copies of the reports as his own.

The next witness was Pandit Jagannath Shukla, another correspondent of the "Pratap" about the Rae Bareli occurrence. He attested the three original copies of accounts as being written by himself for the "Pratap" after a searching enquiry about Rae Bareli disturbances. As regards Birpal singh's firing, he made a similar statement as the first witness. His cross-examination is reserved.

The Court adjourned to the 11th July.

MAULANA NAJAFI'S CASE.

POSTPONED TO JULY 6-

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
KARACHI, June 30.

The case against Maulana Mirza Baqivali Najafi under section 124A and 153A commenced today before Mr. Nabibux, City Magistrate, in the afternoon, application for bail was refused and the accused was represented by Mr. Rewachand, pleader. Three C.I.D. sub-inspectors were examined by Mr. Elphinstone, Barrister, on behalf of the Crown, cross-examination being reserved.

The case was postponed to Wednesday next.

FATAL MOTOR CAR ACCIDENT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
SECUNDERABAD, June 30.

A fatal motor car accident occurred in Secunderabad about 1-20 a.m. resulting in the death of Lt. Woodford of the 2nd Battalion, Befordshire and Hertfordshire regiment. It appears that Mr. Richards of Messrs. Best & Co., with three other officers, Capt. Hurrell, Lt. Ward and Lt. Woodford, after dining at the Bedfordshire Mess, went for a spin sometime after midnight. On their return past the north gate of the Secunderabad Club, the car appears to have left the road and dashed into a tree from which it rebounded on to a culvert. The crash must have been terrific, as the blood and hair of one of the occupants was plastered on the trunk of the tree some 12 feet from the ground whilst the car had its body torn from the chassie. Lt. Woodford was probably killed on the spot, and Mr. Richards had his skull fractured. The other two officers escaped with minor injuries. Shortly after the accident, Mr. Bell passed and seeing what had occurred carried the wounded men off to the Station Hospital. The Cantonment Magistrate held an inquest on the body of Lt. Woodford at noon to-day. The cause of the accident is not at all clear at present owing to Mr. Richards, who drove the car, not being in a fit state to make a statement.

WHY ENDURE PILES?
Thousands of people endure untold misery from painful and weakening piles, perhaps thinking an operation is their only chance of cure. Yet thousands have been cured—and without operation either. They used Zam-Buk the unique healing balm that reduces inflammation, stops bleeding, ends the agony. Purely herbal—wonderfully soothing.
"For seven years," writes W. C. Gibson, 26, Third Street, Pudupet, Madras, "I suffered from bleeding piles, accompanied by acute pain and inflammation. The loss of blood was so great that I became very weak and was advised to go into hospital. Although I tried many remedies, I could find no lasting relief. A friend strongly recommended Zam-Buk as the one safe sure remedy. I, therefore, gave Zam-Buk a thorough trial. From the very first application Zam-Buk proved most beneficial. The bleeding ceased; and pain and inflammation were completely stopped by this marvellous balm. I cannot express too highly my admiration of the wonderful healing and curative properties of Zam-Buk."

D[illegible] RANGASWAMI IYENGAR
"DIABETES SPECIALIST."
RARE AND INVALUABLE SERVICE FOR THE CURE OF "DIABETES."
The following are taken out of the numerous certificates received:—
Mr. Kanyalal Badridas, Cotton Merchant, Bombay, writes:—"I was suffering from 'Diabetes' for the last 12 years. Commenced Dr. Iyengar's treatment. My urine was examined by the Bombay Municipal Analyst, S. P. Gr. being 1037 and Sugar 5-62 per cent. After treatment and on my urine being examined by the same Municipal Analyst and by Dr. N. H. Clubwalla, M.D., B.Hy. (Bom.), at Dr. Masina Hospital and Pathological Laboratory 'Sugar was found NIL' and S. P. Gr. 1013."
Mr. Bhailal V. Kothari, B.A., LL.B., late Vakil, High Court, Bombay, Nayab Dewan of Devgod Baria writes:—"I was suffering from Diabetes for over 4 years and had tried many well-known Doctors of Bombay, but without any effect. I then put myself under the treatment of Dr. S. R. Iyengar and he prescribed a course of 7 complete weeks for me. As each week progressed, the disease that could not at all be controlled before, began to abate with the result that I was completely cured at the end of the course in such a marvellous way that I can very well say that Dr. Iyengar is not a [illegible] Specialist in name, but a Specialist INDEED [illegible] REALLY. My S. P. Gr. was 1038 in the beginning of the course came down to 1015 at the end and grains of Sugar per ounce of Urine fell down from 24 to 'NIL', while dediments were not at all visible."
Mr. N. K. Karode, Chemical Analyser, Junagadh State, writes:—"I am glad to certify that Dr. S. Rangaswami Iyengar treated Rao Bahadur Keshavlal G. Trivedi, Chief Revenue Officer, Junagadh State (Now, Deputy Political Agent Mahikantha, for Diabetes and effected cure in the course of about six weeks. At the commencement of the treatment, the S. P. Gr. of his urine was 1038 and it graduallly fell to 1015 and accordingly the quantity of Sugar also decreased and came down almost normal. Dr. S. R. Iyengar's treatment seems to consist of native drugs and the effect is marvellous. I am of opinion that anybody suffering from this disease should take benefit of Dr. Iyengar's treatment."

"THE MARWADIS,"

"AS BUSINESSMEN.,'

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The writer of the article on "The Marwadis" in the "Bombay Chronicle" dated the 24th of June has through his ignorance of facts about the Marwadi's done great injustice to them. He has depicted the community in colours which are liable to produce prejudicial effects on the public mind. Had he but known the circumstances in which the community is placed in Bombay, had he been aware of the Marwadi inclinations and tendencies, had he been aware of the facts and figures of Marwadi trade in Bombay, we are sure he would not have been so severe in indicting them. We, however, give him credit for recognising the enterprising spirit and business aptitude of the community.

We admit the Marwadis in Bombay are not so advanced as those in Calcutta and there are very cogent reason for that. Firstly, Bombay had got a very bad reputation from the view point of health for Marwadis and hardly 5 per cent of the firms are under the personal control of the proprietors the rest being managed by their munims only, while on the other hand, Calcutta is the headquarters of various Marwadi merchant princes; secondly, the Marwadis had turned their attention earlier towards Calcutta than towards Bombay, consequently they are better established there. Practically the whole of the jute business and most of jute Presses are in their hands; thirdly, at Calcutta they found the field practically without any Indian commercial community to compete with, while here in Bombay they had to cope with the already well established Bhatia community competition with which was not an easy task for the Marwadis.

In spite of the above and other similar circumstances, the Marwadis do not hold an unenviably position in Bombay. Bombay's principle business consists in piece-goods, cotton, seeds and grains. It may perhaps be news to the writer of the article under reply that there are about 400 Marwadi firms in Bombay who carry on the business of exporting piece-goods upcountry and nearly 70 per cent. of this business is in Marwady hands. Similarly nearly 200 Marwadi firms import into Bombay cotton, seeds, and grain from upcountry and nearly 40 per cent. of the total business passes through their hands. Besides the Marwadis are the principle traders in gold and silver.

There are several big Marwadi firms in Bombay having scores of branches upcountry carrying on bonafide business, nay there are some the number of whose branches reach over one hundred each and who stand in competition with the biggest foreign firms in India. The charge that the Marwadi's only or even chief business is speculation cannot be sustained.

As regards industry, the Marwadis are not less enterprising. Outside Bombay, they own about three hundred out of the total eight hundred cotton ginning presses of India and practically all the jute presses; in Calcutta they have got and are acquiring jute mills and even in Bombay where they have turned their attention towards the cotton industry only during the last three years, they are making very satisfactory progress and there is every reason for being optimistic regarding their future. The community has lost nothing of its enterprising spirit and can rightly be proud of being the only Indian community that leads the commerce in all the parts of India, the other commercial communities the Bhatias and the Parsis being limited to their own provinces.

Again, it is far from the truth to say that among the Marwadis education is at a discount. In Calcutta there are about 200 Marwadi graduates, many of whom are in good position. As an instance it may not be out of place to mention that one Marwadi firm, Messrs. Birla Bros Ld., has got a dozen Marwadi graduates on its staff, with salaries up to Rs. 5,000 per month. If one does not find Marwadis in banks and offices it is not because of want of encouragement but because of the general dislike of a Marwadi to take to service so long as he can do without it. He prefers to do independent business rather than take to service and sealing his fate for a small sum for which however non-Marwadi "masters" willingly offer themselves.—Yours etc.

A MARWADI.

"THE TATA PUBLICITY."

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—"Shareholder's" letter in your issue of the 22nd hardly does justice to The Tata Publicity Corporation in one particular.

I have had many personal dealings with the Calcutta office of the Corporation, which office is largely an Editorial one producing the "Looker-on" "Business" and the "Indian Motorist." It is staffed exclusively by Indians. The Editor, though technically a European subject, has been born and trained in India, regards himself as an Indian, and is or was, I believe, a member of the Congress.

At the time of the Punjab troubles, the "Looker-on" had the courage then to protest outspokenly against the O'Dwyerism and Dyerism, and to publish Mr. Eardley Norton's indictment of Lord Chelmsford, Sir Michael O'Dwyer and the Martial lawcare at risk of incurring considerable unpopularity among its European readers.

Similarly with "business." The remainder of the Editorial staff of the Corporation are all Indians recruited in India.

The Corporation's magazines have through their existence under the present Editor (both before and after the formation of the Company), been strongly Nationalist in their policy and are invariably to be found on the side of the Indian nation in any racial or political question.

It is therefore, only fair to the Corporation to place this fact on record—namely, that its Editorial staff is aggresively Indian in sentiments and in policy and by sentiment and action.—Yours etc.
